VYVIGO
TOURS and EVENTS

VyviGo, your specialist in bespoke cultural and leisure group travel, where unique experiences are brought to life through iconic landscapes and timeless treasures.

With over 20 years experience arranging cultural group tours, our travel experts have the knowledge and dedication required to bring your travel experiences to life with seamless unfolding, combining arts and heritage, beautiful scenery, local culture and regional cuisine.

The tours selected for this brochure are only an insight into the standard and genre of our suggested itineraries, all of which can be tailored to what best suits your group's taste, budget, preferences and requirements.

A dedicated advisor will liaise with you from the initial contact through to the tour's successful completion.

Once the quote has been accepted, we issue a confirmation of arrangements, together with bespoke brochures that will assist you in promoting the tour to your group members.

Tour prices are based on 35 passengers travelling in low season, accommodation in 4 star or superior 3 star standard hotels (subject to location and availability), include one free half twin accommodation plus one free for driver, entrance fees to historical sites and landmarks, the services of professional guides and/or tour manager, ferry/Eurotunnel crossings, executive coach travel and free time for you to explore on your own. Exchange rates: as at December, 2019

All client payments made to us are fully secured with Protected Trust Services (membership number 5318) by means of trust accounts audited by independent chartered accountants. This ensures non-misappropriation of your funds and, in the unlikely event that we are unable to provide the service through insolvency, as a consumer your monies paid into the PTS trust account are fully protected.
